ICE BREAKER

If you had this week to do over again, what would you do differently?

GOING DEEPER

- 1) Read Hebrews 8:1-9. According to this passage, the problem with the law wasn't the law; it was our inability to keep the law. If we can't keep the law, why did God give it to us at all?

- 2) Hebrews 8:10-13 says that under the new covenant God will change our hearts, we will belong to Him, we will know Him from the greatest to the least, and He will be merciful toward our failures. Which of those four promises means the most to you right now?

- 3) Do you find it difficult to admit to people that you are struggling in an area of your life? Why or why not?

- 4) How should we respond when someone shares that they're struggling with sin in their life?

GOD'S TRUTH TO REMEMBER

Hebrews 8:10-12 (ESV) – “I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall not teach, each one his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest. For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more.”
